

The Freelance GP you are seeing today is

Dr Matthew Oliver

MBBS MRCGP

I qualified from ST George's Medical School, London, in 2005 and moved down to the sunny south to take up a post at St Richard's Hospital, Chichester. I moved to Queen Alexandra Hospital and then completed GP training in Portsmouth.

I enjoy 'general' practice but am cultivating an interest in diabetes care, and can perform joint injections and the occasional excision.

My wife is a part time doctor, and we have two young girls. When allowed out I tend to cycle in the occasional race, or burn meat on a BBQ.

This appointment is for 10 minutes unless otherwise arranged

Dr Oliver is a member of Pallant Medical
